

SASO DUNDEE BRANCH

THE SCOTTISH ASSOCIATION FOR THE STUDY OF OFFENDING

The Scottish Association for the Study of Offending (SASO) aims to create a common meeting ground, nationally and locally, for all professional groups and individuals concerned with the issues raised by offending in Scotland.

It provides an opportunity for an exchange of views by its members, enabling them to explain their own problems and to appreciate the problems of others engaged in related fields.

We are pleased to announce that the next three guest speakers will be as follows:

The Rt. Hon. Lord Bracadale, QC who will speak on the review of hate crime legislation. Tuesday 10th October 2017.

Marsha Scott, the Chief Executive of Scottish Women's Aid who will speak on the role of Women's Aid. Tuesday 7th November 2017.

Sheriff Alastair Duff, Chief Executive of the Judicial Institute, who will speak on the role and function of the Judicial Institute Tuesday 12th December 2017.

The events will take place on at City Chambers, committee room 1 and will commence at 6 p.m. sharp.

Tea and coffee will be available from 5.30 p.m.

The event is open to all interested parties for views to be shared.

To book your place please visit our eventbrite page which can be found at: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/o/the-scottish-association-for-the-study-of-offending-9784919307>

Booking early is recommended, as places are limited.

Please contact us with any queries on 01382 223399 alternatively, email anikajethwa@btconnect.com

Annual registration fees are £30.00. Discounted rate of £15.00 is available to retired/persons under the age of 25. Registration forms will be available on the evening, or can be obtained from Anika Jethwa & Co Ltd.